Anyone who cares about quality public education can join our campaign to improve our local schools. We launched the My School, My Voice campaign to demand transparency and inclusion in the school improvement planning process. While the new law requires states to involve local together as a team to advance the needs of students and schools.

Are you a new or early career educator? Then we have resources for you! Our new School Me series features tips, advice, life hacks, and guidance from veteran educators to help you feel comfortable and confident in your first few years on the job. Check out podcasts, videos, blogs, and more at nea.org/schoolme

SupportEd is a leading voice for educators, providing the essential tools, resources, and support to help you as an educator. It delivers the best professional development opportunities, articles, events, communities from across the universe of NEA online properties. supported.nea.org

EdJustice engages and mobilizes activists in the fight for racial, social, and economic justice in public education. Readers will find timely coverage of social justice issues in education and ways they can advocate for our students, our schools, and our communities. educationvotes.nea.org/neaedjustice

NEA Micro-Credentials are one of the best ways to improve your practice as an educator and create better outcomes for your students. These competency-based credentials allow you to demonstrate mastery on a variety of subject matter in a personalized and flexible way. The more than 80 micro-credentials can even count as continuing education units in certain states. http://cgps.nea.org/micro-credentials/

Everyone deserves a fair shot at higher education. But these days college debt isn’t just a burden—it’s a barrier to accessing the American Dream. NEA understands that student loan debt can feel overwhelming, that’s why our union has put together resources to help you make the best decisions about your financial future. http://www.nea.org/degreesnotdebt

Our union works hard to provide educators with resources, tools, and opportunities to get involved in the issues that matter most to us.